Dr Michael Wolters

Specialist lawyer for construction and architects' law

Michael advises principals and contractors on issues surrounding contract drafting and the realisation of major construction projects, primarily in the area of complex infrastructure projects. In public procurement law, Michael supports public principals in the preparation and implementation of procurement proceedings both above and below the relevant thresholds. Bidders draw on his expertise in public procurement law in the course of preparing tenders and in during public procurement review procedures.

What others say

„ Recommended lawyer for public procurement law; 'Broad specialist knowledge, which he applies in a practical and target-orientated manner; uncomplicated and reliable in his dealings; comprehensible approach to non-lawyers. Very well accepted in-house as an advisor' “

Legal 500 Germany 2020 and 2024

„ Lawyer of the year 2021 for construction law (Berlin); One of the most frequently recommended lawyers for construction law and public commercial law “
